Panama Fishing Trip In Native Pangas

Pedasi, Republic of Panama

After clearing customs and immigration at Panama City's Tocumen International airport, you will be greeted by our receptive operator as you exit customs. From Tocumen Airport you will travel to downtown Panama City for check in to your hotel, this will be your first night in Panama. The following morning you will once again be picked up for your transfer to Albrook Airport from where you will travel by air to Pedasi where once again you are met and transferred to the lode you have booked. For the next three days you will leave the lodge early in the morning for a full day on your Panama fishing in a Panga. On Friday you will return to Panama City transferred to your hotel for your last night in Panama. Early morning transfer to Tocumen International Airport for your return trip home..

A Full Day Of Fishing

You will wake up early and grab breakfast before enjoying a 6-8 hour fishing day. Water, sodas, sandwiches, snacks, etc. will be provided to keep you going while onboard.

Packages

Pedasi offers a complete package of personalized fishing expeditions for our visiting guests. Our packages will give you seven days in Panama with three full days of fishing in Pedasi.
